

of the Presbyterian church. Elijah Ferry held a Lts. Commission under the old militia law.

FERRY, ELMER E.-Farmer by occupation, "always staunch Republican." Served one term in State Assembly in 1913. Active in lodge, president of the Board of Education of the Almond School, active in the Grange and the Presbyterian church. Married Florence Collins. They had three daughters, Grace, Mrs. Carl Frarey and Helen, and two sons, Claude and Hiram. Mrs. Ferry was a member of the W.C.T.U. in 1917-18.

FERRY, HIRAM-Born in 1828, married Susan Potter of Almond in 1854, had three children. Member of Presbyterian church. Also member of group organizing Republican party in Allegany County.

FERRY, MISS MARY

FERRY, PHILIP-Son of Silas Ferry, Deacon of the Presbyterian church in 1878, brother of Mrs. Hiram Cutler. Born in Almond in 1811, married Lois Karr in 1834. With A.N. Cole and group who called themselves "Old Guard of Liberty" organized Republican party in Allegany County. Joel Wakeman was also in this group. Elected as Justice of Peace in 1860. Served 12 years. Supt. of Woodlawn Cemetery Association in 1880's.

FERRY, SILAS-Married Jernsha Goss. Trustee of Presbyterian church. Came with ox-team from Luzerne County in 1802. Father of Phillip Ferry.

FIELDS, MRS. PETER-(Louisa Gibbs) She died January 8, 1872. Peter Fields was a partner in Gibbs and Field. He was town clerk of Almond in 1873.

FISHER, CARL-Prattsburg, New York. Uncle of Cornelia Bagadorn. No further information.

FISHER "LOT"-Carl Fisher's daughter, no further information.

of the Presbyterian church. Served under the old militia law.

FERRY, ELMER E.-Farmer by occupation, "always staunch Republican."
Served one term in State Assembly in 1913. Active in lodge, president of the Board of Education of the Almond School, active in the Grange and the Presbyterian church. Married Florence Collins. They had three daughters, Grace, Mrs. Carl Frarey and Helen, and two sons, Claude and Hiram. Mrs. Ferry was a member of the W.C.T.U. in 1917-18.

FERRY, HIRAM-Born in 1828, married Susan Potter of Almond in 1854, had three children. Member of Presbyterian church. Also member of group organizing Republican party in Allegany County.

FERRY, MISS MARY

FERRY, PHILIP-Son of Silas Ferry, Deacon of the Presbyterian church in 1878, brother of Mrs. Hiram Cutler. Born in Almond in 1811, married Lois Karr in 1834. With A.N. Cole and group who called themselves "Old Guard of Liberty" organized Republican party in Allegany County. Joel Wakeman was also in this group. Elected as Justice of Peace in 1860. Served 12 years. Supt. of Woodlawn Cemetery Association in 1880's.

FERRY, SILAS-Married Jernsha Goss. Trustee of Presbyterian church.
Came with ox-team from Luzerne County in 1802. Father of Phillip Ferry.

FIELDS, MRS. PETER-(Louisa Gibbs) She died January 8, 1872.
Peter Fields was a partner in Gibbs and Field. He was town clerk of Almond in 1873.