Grange News

The Grange program Saturday evening was in charge of the lecturer, Mrs. Lila Burlock. "Silent Night" was sung by the group. Mrs. Hazel Lawrence gave a Christmas reading which closed with a Christmas holiday greeting to each of the officers, participated in by all those present. Recitations were given by Donald and Delores Haggstrom and by Wilma Lawrence. Mrs. Deborah and Mrs. Laura Hall sang, "Here Comes Santa Claus," with Mrs. Hall at the piano and Welles Dunlap on the violin. Mario Connors read "Christmas in Other Lands" followed by an appropriate quiz. "Why is Christmas?" and "Fragile Bells" were sung, the latter with whistling in the chorus. The entire group sang "Hark the Herald Angels Sing." Charles Sely gave a reading, "The Night Before Christmas—Late." Welles Dunlap favored with a violin solo. Mrs. Maude Palmer read, "Why the Chimney Rang." Santa Claus arrived on schedule and gifts, candy, popcorn and nuts were distributed. Dancing and cards followed.

NOTICE

To Owners and Harbors of Dogs: 1947 dog licenses expire on Dec. 31, 1947. 1948 dog license fee is due Jan. 1, 1948.

All dogs must be licensed and when at large must wear a collar with a tag.

BONUS PAYMENTS FOR WAR II VETS VARY IN AMOUNT

Approximately 75 per cent of eligible applicants for a share of New York State's $450,000,000 World War II veterans bonus will receive the maximum $250 payment. Leo V. Lanning, State Bonus Bureau director, estimated. He predicts 22 per cent will get $150 and three per cent will be paid $50.

At the same time, Mr. Lanning emphasizes that a veteran, in order to be eligible for $250, must have served outside the continental limits of the United States at any time between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, inclusive.

"Veterans who served in this country," Mr. Lanning says, "and did not serve outside the continental limits until after September 2, 1945, are not qualified for the maximum payment."

Bonus application forms will be distributed publicly in every community throughout New York State beginning December 31.

Bonus amounts for which eligible living veterans may apply beginning January 1 are: $250 for service of any duration outside the continental limits of the United States; $150 for service of more than 60 days within the continental limits.

Dorsey-Hooker

The marriage of Mrs. Virginia Ann Hooker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker and Robert, Joseph Dorsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dorsey, was celebrated at 10 o'clock Saturday morning in the United Methodist rectory. The Rev. Daniel H. Hart officiated.

The bride was attended in a striking length, train of rose crepe and a corsage of white sweet peas and roses. The maid of honor, Mrs. Sylvia Hoodson, sister of the bride, wore a rose wool crepe dress with a green sash of blue silk.

Brother of the groom was best man. The bride's mother wore a yellow wool dress with a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's mother wore a dress of a black dress and wore a corsage of Angelica Central High School and was employed in the Farm Bureau office at Belmont until her marriage. The groom is a graduate of the same school and served two years with the U. S. Navy in the Pacific.

Pre-nuptial events included a variety shower at the home of Mrs. Ethel Lawrence in Angelica and a dinner party in the Hotel Belmont.

Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Schuyler was celebrated Friday evening, December 15th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Platt. Twenty relatives and friends were served from a table decorated in the Christmas colors.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler were married October 19, 1907 by Rev. F. W. Hill, in Belmont. Mrs. Schuyler was the former Miss Bina Wynn. They have lived since November 1, 1938 on the farm in West Belmont, which they purchased at that time. Both are active members of the local Baptist Church, where Mrs. Schuyler is a teacher in church school and has served many times as deacon and trustee of the church. Mr. Schuyler is president of the W.C.T.U. The guests of honor received many cards, flowers, gifts and a piece of money. Mrs. Charles Edwidge of Belmont assisted Mrs. Platt in serving.

Episcopal Pageant

The story of the Nativity, according to St. Luke was portrayed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday evening. Appropriate carols were sung during the pageant. Taking part were Zachariah, Clair Harding; Mary, Sally Lynch; Joseph, James Warner; Shepherds, Maurice Calmes and George South.

The Angelica Conservation Club

Each drops this year $25. With slight changes in the plan, the year of dog will be here to see. A New Year, a New Year is here again.

Our nation's figure heads estimate there are 2,800 ways of saving a dime. There are just as many ways of saving a dollar. The club has how to save a dollar. The club has how to save for a rainy day. There are forgotten hour sets. There are not many green and molly pennies in the children's bank anymore.

Why not start a movement and put it over big, by interesting our children, real young and older, in starting a Christmas Club at the bank of Angelica. They can be started as small as ten cents and on up. By starting a Christmas Club and letting the youngsters attend to the payments themselves, will give them a chance to get acquainted with banking and the bank. Therefore, making it easier for them to do banking in the future.

January 2, 1776, the first union flag was unfurled at Washington's headquarters.

Authorities on fish and wild game report that animals, classified as big game in U. S., has increased. In about five years, big game increased in population 10%, which exceeds the gain in human population in the same period. Deer greatly outnumbered.

Baptist Church Services

John B. Phillips, Minister. Services at 7:30 which includes prayer, praise and Bible study, thank the New Year ritual. Attend prayer services.

On Sunday at 10:30 a. m., worship service with special music and songs. Themes: "About My Father's Business," "Holy Communion."

8:40 p. m., Junior choir practice. 7:30 p. m., Evening service with special music and a special message. Theme: "The Heart of the Cross". "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another, and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching."

Methodist Church Services

Carlyle F. Smith, Minister. A service of Holy Communion will be conducted at the regular morning worship hour at 10 a. m. The ministry of our church choir is a vital part of our worship service. Start the New Year right! Worship God this first Sunday of the New Year.

The church school will be conducted at 11:30 a. m.

The New Year's Eve Service held this week Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the church parlor will stress "New Year's Resolutions."

who neglects or refuses to obtain a license for the dog as required by law, incurs a penalty of $10 and costs.

The municipalities of towns and the police departments of cities and villages issuing dog licenses are required to prepare in the month of January of each year a list of dog owners. The omission of the name of an owner from such list does not relieve the owner from obtaining a license.

If you do not own or harbor a dog, it is advisable to see that your name does not appear on the list filed with the clerk.

Dog licenses are issued by Myrtle Messinger, Town Clerk, in the Town of Angelica, N. Y.

Dog licenses are now available and can be obtained from Mrs. Messinger at her office on Mechanic Street.

Death of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Worden

William Smith, a neighbor, making a morning call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Worden in Big said near the Allen line, found Mrs.
Worden lying on a couch, unconscious and the dead body of Mr. Worden lying across the foot of the couch. Mr. Worden, 74, had evidently suffered a stroke while Mrs.
Worden, 52, had a heart attack. She was taken to the Pillmore Hospital where her death occurred a few days later.

Funeral services for Mr. Worden were held at the Short Tract Methby the Children's game organization division, revealed that 50% of all yearling bucks has two points on each side. In the second year a young buck has unbranched prongs and is commonly called a "spike" or "spike-buck."

Early in the spring the buck loses his antlers, but a new growth starts almost immediately. From May to September the antlers are covered with a fuzzy skin, known as "velvet".
The growth is rapid, attaining a full growth by autumn. In September, usually, the buck begins to rub off the velvet-like skin covering his antlers, which by this time are fully developed. During the breeding season (from October to December) the deer is at his best with dark coat and gleaming antlers, truly the finest of American big game animals, and she believed to be the worst killer.

The bucks going through with the painful operation of shedding their horns, during the months the young deer are born, it is said if it were not for this, the bucks would injure or perhaps kill the doe and their young.

A prosperous and happy New Year is the wish of Angelica Conservation Club.

Have you ever peeped through an old calendar, after it has expired the usefulness on the kitchen wall?
Or have you ever looked at a calendar with hanging in the basement cell, from 1944 or '45? Sort of useless, isn't it? No use at all. There's a reason in old calendars. New ones, too. They remind us of the ancient and recondite. Right of time We're a lot closer to the end than we

New York State Banks Second in "Spud" Raising

Although New York's potato acreage has been declining, she still ranks second only to Maine in production, Prof. E. V. Hardsburg of Cornell's vegetable crop department reports.

Last year, New York produced nine per cent of the total U. S. crop, and in 1947 about eight and one-half per cent, he says. In two counties, Buffalo and Nassau on Long Island, about 80 per cent of the total state crop is produced on one-third of the total state acreage.

"New York is listed as a surplus potato state, yet her great population probably now consumes more than the state produces. Most of her crop is consumed in cities within the state, yet several bushels are trucked to cities in other states."

THE FICTION CORNER

PET PEST
 By HUBERT DENNIS

"The room and humed at the door of Clint Lupton's office. Penny Alder sat on her, having come through the barrage of newspaper articles about Clint Lupton put a copy on her desk."

"Miss Alder," the man was too polite to bother to get up, "I'm Clint Lupton, back later."

She looked up at the old man who stood in the door of Clint's room, a lean, stunted figure like a piece of dried lettuce. She noticed an assistant society editor had written of the sports department and his life problem.

The old fellow brushed the yellowed, saw-browned straw hat clamped down over his thin fringe of white hair.

"I've got some news about The Kid for Clint to write up," he said, as he crossed the narrow aisle.

"Oh," Penny replied helplessly. If it was about The Kid old Haghey would stand and gab forever.

"Course I've got to give it to Clint. I've been keeping Clint right up to date on The Kid." He swallowed at something.

"So he's said me." With dull fascination she watched the old fellow's Adam's apple climb up and down the stretch of turkey-like neck above the over-size collar. Clint also had said—that the next time old Haghey tried to fold his ears back, he was going to—

"Did I ever show you the picture The Kid sent me when he was 'trainin' out on the Coast?" Haghey poked a post-card portrait under her nose—a white-you-wait photograph of a young fellow in sailor blues, his hat cocked at an angle over one brilliant eye.

"A fine lookin' boy, Miss Alder." She'd seen the face before. Her glance strayed in through the open door of Clint's office to where a shaft of late afternoon sunshine

"You haven't got your hat on," said Clint gruffly. "I suppose that means it's another 'no date.'" He accused, "You know that old guy gets me down."

She looked up at him, and that chip was on her shoulder.

"For holding him," he scowled, "you're going to break down and go out to dinner—and places—with me."

To make ripe olives shiny and bright, rub them in a few drops of olive oil or salad oil and cover until ready to use.

A brilliant polish can be given to your silverware by rubbing it with a damp cloth and then with a dry one.

When duck or goose is being prepared for roasting, place feet in its breast.

After removing a frock, place it on a hanger immediately and hang it in the air so that it may be thoroughly dried out. A fragrantly scented sachet hung inside the dress will leave its essence with your garment as it dries.

A noted authority on flowers and flower arrangement advises the use of glass or white pottery vases or bowls as these go well with the colors of all flowers and the decorative colors in all rooms. Vases of leached color, unless bought especially to go with a particular color scheme or period room, distract attention from their contents.

Sagging floors often are caused by wood shrinkage or the warping of a joint. A fairly satisfactory correction can be made by driving wedges between the top of the joint and the floor. Rubber wedges cut from an old automobile tire often will reduce the creaking.

Magnet Brings Up Nail From Intestines of Boy
 Using a special magnet, an Atlanta physician recently removed a 1/4-inch nail that had been lodged for six days in the duodenum

"Did I ever show you the picture she had sent me when he was pinned out on the Coast?" Hagley asked, a post-card portrait under her nose—a white-powdered photograph of a young fellow in sailor blues, his hat cocked at an angle over one brilliant eye.
 "A fine looking boy, Miss Alder." She'd seen the face before. Her glance strayed to through the open door of Clint's office to where a shaft of late afternoon sunshine spotlighted a photograph tacked on the wall—a bare-torsoed kid in fighting pose.
 She'd always looked down her smart straight nose at those pictures of Clint's brazen and lusty friends—the guys with the ears and bent noses. The guys having forward passes through her eyes.
 And Clint Lipson—with his head well combed back, and that brilliant brown forehead between his deep-set gray eyes—was part of his muscle magazine, as far as she was concerned.

"My grandson, Miss Alder—you'd have thought the scrappy kid in the sailor suit was an admirer, from the pride in old Hagley's voice. "You ask Clint if The Kid wasn't on his way of being water-weight champ—before he wanted to enlist."

For Joyful Cough Relief, Try This Home Mixture

This splendid recipe is used by millions every year, because it makes such a dependable, effective medicine for coughs due to colds. It is so easy to mix—a child could do it.

From any drugstore, get 1/4 ounce of Flinax, a special compound of seven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its soothing effect on throat and bronchial irritations.

Then make a syrup by stirring two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Put the Flinax into a pint bottle and mix up with your syrup. This gives you a full pint of cough medicine, very effective and quick-acting, and you get about four times as much for your money. It gives relief in a very pleasant—children love it.

You'll be surprised by the way it takes hold of coughs, giving quick relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Money refunded if it doesn't clear you in every way.

whole by the government. This alternative would be $30 a month for one dependent and $45 a month for two or more dependents.

During initial training, the trainees would be entitled to benefits of the soldiers and sailors' civil relief act of 1940 and to the death and disability benefits furnished civilian employees of the government.

As to the educational factor, the report of the sub-committee on education, a division of the UMT civilian advisory committee which visited the Fort Knox experimental unit regularly, set forth the principle that UMT should be so flexible "that a man could return to school or to his civilian occupation without a loss of considerable time; and therefore, it is more advantageous to maintain the six-month period of initial training with a minimum of education than to prolong this period of training and permit inclusion of a comprehensive educational program."

To assure that the trainees do not lose sight of how life value, a well-planned counseling program is recommended. It would be conducted by an educational staff including a trained psychologist.

The six-month training period where the accent is on the military is by no means ALL military. Bayonet practice and "dirty fighting" have been eliminated, and out of the entire six months only 300 hours are devoted to actual training, the rest to "processing and orientation."

There is a once-a-week lecture on citizenship and morality, and general information is included in the regular troop information period. In

As one man from Louisville put it to me: "It's an entirely different thing from ordinary G.I. experiences. The boys themselves are the best witnesses."

According to the 20th Century fund, cotton supplies more than three-fourths of all fiber consumption in the United States. Now I know what they put into my breakfast of the above-stated options, there is a corps for six years, with active duty requirements of not more than 30 days a year.

The first experimental unit at Fort Knox has just about completed the second cycle of its training, the first cycle having ended in July.

UMT program centers on a selective schedule of instructive military training.

Since last January, a civilian advisory committee of 34 men and women has served continuously, visiting the unit individually and in groups. They have observed the trainees at work, at play, on leave in and around Louisville.

This committee, by the way, represents a fair cross-section of the parents, educators, religious leaders, newspapermen and public officials whose interest, either personal, professional or patriotic, makes universal training important to them.

This committee says that as a result of this year of training the boys have benefited by definite spiritual and moral training, self-expression through individual hobbies, training for leadership, and respect for authority and the rights of others, as well as gaining military skills which are taught under "discipline, not regimentation."

"The President has asked for bread and you have given him a stone," said Rep. Brent Sease (Dem., Ky.) in summing up the debate for the Democrats. Rep. A. S. Atwater (Monroe) (Dem., Okla.)

could not make a similar point. He said that in the past, the military has been too expensive and that it is time to re-examine the situation. He pointed out that the military has been a drain on the national treasury for years.

There was a small amount of protest about the bill, but most of the criticism was directed at the proposed six-month period. The critics felt that this was too short a time to provide adequate training. However, the majority of the committee members supported the bill.

Although the delegates were unable to agree on any single issue at the conference, the point upon which the conference failed to agree was the problem of German reparations. "What now?" diplomatic authorities were answering with a prediction that the United States, Great Britain and France, would begin negotiating soon among themselves concerning the liquidation of Germany's assets.

Russia would be out of the picture, and there was no prospect of other powers meeting in 1948 or in any other year.

CONGRESS:
'Straw Man'
Of the two pressing reasons why President Truman called Congress into special session in November, one had been disposed of by the other kept hanging around like an evil spirit as the year drew to a close.

The senate and house had voted strongly in favor of authorizing up to $27 million dollars for emergency winter relief for France, Italy, Austria and China, but to such word was displayed in dealing with the problem of inflation at home.

Rejecting President Truman's bipartisan proposal for fighting inflation by imposing wage and price controls and selective rationing, house Republicans offered an anti-inflation bill based upon voluntary agreements for price reductions.

With a two-thirds vote needed for passage, the Republican measure went down to defeat 233 to 184. The house split almost exactly along party lines over the bill, but one Democrat breaking ranks to vote in favor of it.

"The President has asked for bread and you have given him a stone," said Rep. Brent Sease (Dem., Ky.) in summing up the debate for the Democrats. Rep. A. S. Atwater (Monroe) (Dem., Okla.)

There was approval to the bill given in interim sessions by the Senate and House. The bill passed in the House on December 15, 1947.

This time the struggle across over government aid issues continued to revolve in House and Senate.

The actual bill is appropriate for the actual bill previously approved by Congress. The House approved the bill by a vote of 274 to 135.

At the Republican display of economy, Democrats lambasted the committee's action as an "undercover" attempt to hamstring the aid program. They served notice that they would attempt to restore the cut.

In Driving
If a training course in automobile driving were made a requirement in the curriculum of every high school, traffic deaths could be reduced by 5,000 to 10,000 a year, according to Dr. Wayne Hughes, director of National Safety Council's college driver training reduced traffic accidents by 50 per cent, the council said.

A safety council survey made among Cleveland high schools between 1939 and 1941 showed that actual driver training reduced traffic accidents by 50 per cent, the council said.

"It is our firm belief that if every high school in the nation would put into effect such a course we would see miracles within five years," Dr. Hughes asserted.

Officials pointed out that statistics for 1946 proved that mile for mile the 15-24 age group was a third more dangerous behind the wheel than any other comparable segment of the population. That group accounted for 33.3 per cent of the nation's fatalities in 1946.

At present only 10 per cent of the 25,000 high schools in the U. S. have what the council regards as adequate driver training courses. And only a part of the schools conducting such courses have actual automobiles in operation.

THE New Year, the turning of a another page in the book of our lives. Before us appears a new dawn while past, a slab of snow-white marble, wherein we must record the events of the coming year as they apply to us, to our country and to the world. What shall we record?

Longfellow said: "Life is earnest. Let us then be up and doing with a heart for any fate; still achieving, still pursuing, learn to labor and to wait."

On the new page we might place our first entry: "Smile, save, serve." We can be thankful for another morning of life. We can be thankful for this day; for its failures which we must acknowledge as lessons. We must check our faults and failures. We must scatter seeds of smiles and service, so that they may grow to maturity, so that the reaping will not be shame and sorrow. We will smile, save and serve.

DAY'S MIXUP

The whole world celebrates New Year's Day, but not always on the same date.

The biggest mixup occurred from 1552 to 1772 when Europe and England observed the New Year on the same day but at different times! In 1552, Pope Gregory III eliminated 10 days from the Julian calendar previously in use because it was 11 minutes longer each year than the astronomical year. England did not adopt the new Gregorian calendar until 1772, however, thus observing the same holiday at a later day.

When translated into the Gregorian calendar, the Jewish New Year varies from September 6 to October 4. The Mohammedans not only celebrate at a different date but their calendar is dated almost 600 years behind the Gregorian since it begins with the Prophet's flight from Mecca in A. D. 622.

HAPPY NEW YEAR 1948

could talk more openly and act more natural than on formal occasions.

Fred matrnas told their unused daughters that among so many charming and eligible young men they surely must find one on whom they could bestow their affections. It must be noted, however, that the young ladies had to be fast walkers. No matter how informal these New Year's Day calls were, it was a great breach of propriety for a young man to stay more than 10 minutes.

NEW YEAR'S JOY

The theme of New Year's Day always has been one of joy. Regardless of the country or the people, or of the date on which it was celebrated, joy marked the spirit in which it was observed.

New Year's Day of the Mohammedans is given as October 17; of the Hebrews as September, and of the Chinese as early February.

The ancient Egyptians, Phoenicians and Persians began their year at the autumnal equinox, September 21, and the Greeks until the fifth century B. C. at the winter solstice, December 21. In 453 B. C. the latter altered the New Year's Day to June 21.

The ancient Romans celebrated December 21, but this was altered to January 1 by Caesar in adopting the Julian calendar.

March 23 was the date observed among most Christian peoples in medieval days. In Anglo-Saxon England, however, December 23 was New Year's Day until it was changed to January 1 at the Norman conquest, but later it was changed to March 29 and so remained until the English adopted the Gregorian calendar.

Nearly 50 per cent of the men at Fort Knox participate in the off-duty educational program, and some have completed graduation from high school by this route.

According to the Digest report made by Jones, "the barracks area" of profanity and obscenity does not exist. Without in any way sacrificing vitality, the Digest claims that "a new way of looking at things has been created." Sex has its place in instruction. Inflation to Burst into Bloom

Where price inflation is concerned there is no such thing as a last word. More words, more gloomy predictions always follow.

Latest verbal foreboding by private and government forecasters holds that next April and May will mark a probable crisis peak in the continuing upward trend of retail and wholesale prices.

Flat predictions that meat and some other food prices are likely to soar as winter ends have been made by political officials and confirmed by government and other economists.

AT THE beginning of each New Year two pathways open. One slants downward, slow deterioration, spiritual exhaustion, spiritual apathy and even physical strength.

The other leads to the finer things of existence, ascending gradually to lofty heights of mind and spirit. At the entrance Life stands with cheery greeting and forward impetus for all who bend. Choose well your way! He who lives fully in the year at hand will create grandly for the year that follows. Regardless of any past, he who is his best self today will find much beauty in tomorrow.

Start of The Year

First community in the world to celebrate New Year's Day every year is the little colony on Chatham Island. This British Isles in the South Pacific is the nearest land area west of the International Date Line on the 180th meridian. The people are mostly Polynesian fishermen, but the few British residents hail the New Year in proper style. Chatham is 40 miles east of New Zealand.

NEW YEAR'S JOY

The theme of New Year's Day always has been one of joy, regardless of the date on which it was celebrated, for marked the epoch in which it was observed.

New Year's Day of the Mohammedans is given on October 11 of the Islamic calendar, and of the Chinese on September, and of the ancient Egyptians, Persians, Greeks and Romans began their year on the autumnal equinox, September 21, and the Greeks until the 19th century B. THE LOOK AHEAD

"I am done with the years that were, I am quite."

They are mine worked out, I delved in their pits. I have sowed the grains of gold— Now I turn to the past for wine and bread—

I have hidden the past within— I laugh, and lift hands to the year ahead.

Come out! I am ready for you! —Edwin Markham.

"Now if someone would just play Rhapsody in Blue." Ruth's voice was half-mocking.

"Do I look that bad?" Jessie turned around.

"You look worse. Honest, honey, I think you're crazy to sit around on New Year's Eve and stew about one man. The world is full of them."

INCREASED RATES
TOWN AND VILLAGE
FOR NEXT YEAR

Residents of 28 of the 29 towns and all the 12 villages in Allegany county are facing higher tax rates for 1946, according to the table of rates for state, county and town taxes listed for 1947 expenditures and 1948 budgeted county and town millages. The rates were made public recently at the office of Clark Donald G. Perkins of the Board of Supervisors.
The only town to enjoy a lowered rate is Hardsell. The rate there is $20.32 for the coming year, compared with $21.84 for last year, a reduction of 26 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation.
Increases in some of the towns of the county run into real figures.
Those of $4 per $1,000 or over include Alfred with $4.35 more than one year ago; Centerville, $4.81;
Granger, $4.95; Independence, $5.81; and Ward $5.95 more. Some of the small increases shown by the table are in these towns: Rushford, 14 cents per $1,000; Burns, 64 cents;
and Almond, 83 cents.
Town rates in Cuba show an increase of $1.54, and village rates,

Vets' Service News

Here's some good news for veterans who believe they have a service-connected disability which wants no time in filing their claims and getting that disability rated by the Veterans Administration.
Effective January 1 the VA will connected disability claim prior to any authorization at VA expense treatment is admission to a civilian hospital.
What it means is the end of gross false determinations of service-connection for medical care which was adopted a little over a year ago as an emergency measure to assist in the handling of the load of claims which swamped the VA.
Under that system, VA doctors were permitted to authorize treatment as service-connected cases in the face of the first examination or surface evidence that the disability was the result of service, thus permitting the vet to obtain emergency treatment while awaiting approval of the formal claim.
Hereafter, after December 31, emergency treatment, prior to claim approval, will be permitted only at VA hospitals, as in all non-service-connected cases.
Way to beat this is to file claim for service-connection on a condition of disability now, even if there is no immediate need for treatment. Then, if service-con-

the session adjourned to Hotel Bel-banquet had to be held in two halls

A resolution from the Delaware County Board was read favoring an additional tax of two cents per dollar on the retail price of gasouse in a program of reconstruction and rehabilitation of the highways.

During discussion it was brought out that the present total tax was five and one-half cents per gallon, only about two cents of which goes directly into highway funds. The resolution was referred to the Highway Committee.
A report on the last inspection of the County Farm by C. W. Desbark was read from a letter from Robert E. Marshman, director of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. The letter called operation of the farm good.
The report says: "A fine Jersey herd is kept on this farm which over the years has produced well.
There is a large population of two horses and two colts, but most of the farm work is done with tractors.
A small swine herd is well supplied

Some of the small increases shown by the table are in these towns: Bushfield, 14 cents per $1,000; Burns, 64 cents, and Belmont, 52 cents.

Some towns in Cuba show an increase of $1.50, and village rates, $1.50. Friendship town rate up $2.00 and village rate both advanced $1.00. Wellsville town rate, up $2.25 and village rate up $1.40.

Among the villages, Alden has the highest increase in rate, $4.25 per $1,000. Argyle, $4.02 more; Canfield, $3.51 more, and Friendship, $3.25 more. Other increases in village rates are more moderate: Belmont, $1.90; Belmont, $1.83; Andover, $1.45; Bushfield, $1.39; and Wellsville, $1.30.

Higher rates are made up of $1.15 increases in the county budget, due in part to the wage adjustment made for county officers and employees. Increases in towns and villages come from higher wages paid, purchase of machinery, highway improvements and other factors. List of assessments against the county follows:

Allegany County, $1,000,000; Belmont, $1,000,000; Canfield, $1,000,000; George, $1,000,000; Independence, $1,000,000; Wellsville, $1,000,000; and Ward, $1,000,000.

Thereafter, after December 31, 1940, approval will be permitted only at VA hospitals, as in all non-service-connected cases.

Way to best this is to file claim for service-connection on a condition of disability now, even if there is no immediate need for treatment. Then, if service-connection is granted, it is some future date that condition should require medical treatment or hospitalization. One's health is not likely to get better, and it is better to get out-patient treatment in advance to civilian hospitals.

Otherwise, when treatment becomes necessary, the vet will have to go to a VA hospital or pay the full cost of treatment.

Under that system, VA doctors were permitted to authorize treatment at service-connected and non-service-connected hospitals. The bill now in effect will require that the disability rating be obtained from a VA physician, after December 31, 1940. Thereafter, after December 31, 1940, approval will be permitted only at VA hospitals, as in all non-service-connected cases.

Way to best this is to file claim for service-connection on a condition of disability now, even if there is no immediate need for treatment. Then, if service-connection is granted, it is some future date that condition should require medical treatment or hospitalization. One's health is not likely to get better, and it is better to get out-patient treatment in advance to civilian hospitals.

Otherwise, when treatment becomes necessary, the vet will have to go to a VA hospital or pay the full cost of treatment.

For a formal rating... You desiring to file claims for service-connected disabilities should call at the Allegany County Veterans Service Agency, Court House, Belmont, at their first opportunity.

Surrogate's Court News

A will probated in Surrogate's Court results official New England. Miss Alden died August 17 last at Alden, leaving an estate estimated in value at $23,000 personal and $5,000 real property. Objections were made to some of the provisions of the will by some of the heirs and a contest was threatened. Finally, a compromise was reached, which gives Miss Alden's life residence, at 93 North State street, to the university, at least until August 1, 1947, for use as noted above.

Dennis Howell, Hammondsport, executor of the estate of Ruth W. Burns, Cuba, who died October 1, 1940, is executor of the exceeding $1,000 estate of Ma M. Bruce, same town, who died November 17.

Five rights to administrators were issued:

To First Trust Company, Wellsville, on the $3,000 personal and $7,000 realty estate of Lillian W. Woodcock, Wellsville, who died November 20.

To Henry A. Andrews, Town of Alden, executor of the $2,000 personal and $1,000 realty estate of Frederick E. Strauss, same town, who died December 1.

To Howard F. Baker, Andover, son, on the net more than $200 personal and $3,000 realty estate of George E. Baker, Andover, who died November 13.

To Everett L. Stafford, son, and Lila Bullock, daughter, both of Argyle, on the estate of George R. Stafford, Belmont, who died December 3.

To Belle R. Rice, Fillmore, widow, on the estate of Charles M. Rice, same address, who died January 15 last.

Revolving-Wheel Library

A resolution was read favoring County Board with two cents per gallon on the retail price at gas stations, taverns and villages for use in a program of reconstruction and rehabilitation of the highways. During discussion it was brought out that the present retail tax was five and one-half cents per gallon, and only about two cents of which goes directly into highway funds. The resolution was referred to the Highway Committee.

A report on the last inspection of the County Farm by C. W. Trankter was read from a letter from Robert S. Marshman, director of the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets. The letter called operation of the farm good. The report says: "A fine Jersey herd is kept on the farm which over the years has produced well. There is a large population of two horses and two colts, but most of the farm work is done with tractor. A small wine yard is well equipped with peaches and is housed under good conditions. It supplies all of the pork needed at the institution."

"A flock of 150 laying hens raised from second chicks in clean range is healthy and well cared for. A two and one-half acre garden supplies all of the vegetables at the institution during the growing season, besides furnishing a quantity of corn and root crops to be placed in winter storage. It is possible that several varieties of berries might be added to the garden to advantage. One acre of potatoes is planted. These are properly planted and well cared for."

"The maintenance is in very good condition, but a truck, a mowing machine, sprayer, and a two-horse plow are needed."

A resolution was moved by John N. Thompson, Argyle, and passed, authorizing the county treasurer to transfer unexpended balances from certain funds of the County Welfare Department to funds which may be depleted before December 31. These were from County Farm amount to county infirmary $1,000, County Home Farm, in County Home inmates, $1,000; from County Home Farm to County Home Buildings, $5,000; from Commissioner's Administration to Old Age Assistance amount, $5,000.

Busy Fish Spins Nest; Rears Young Himself

The little male stickleback is only three to four inches long, but he's an active fish. He builds a cylindrical nest of reeds and seals all openings but one by means of threads secreted by the kidneys. Then he seeks out a female and induces her to deposit eggs in the conical opening. After the eggs have hatched, the male destroys the nest and rears the young himself.

Farmers Produce Practically All Margarine Materials

Farmers in all but four of our 48 states—Maine, New Hampshire, Nevada and Rhode Island—now produce practically all the material that goes into our annual production of over six hundred million pounds of margarine.
 In 1946, we produced 372,537,000 pounds of margarine in which we used 222,530,000 pounds of cotton seed oil; 230,718,000 pounds of soy bean oil; 13,794,000 pounds of peanut oil and 6,500,000 pounds of corn oil.
 In addition to this, margarine contains about 18 per cent cultured pasteurized skim milk, one to one and a half per cent of skim milk solids, three per cent of salt and one per cent vitamins and other ingredients, all of which are produced in the United States.—Adv.

Historic Church Plans Facilities For Newlyweds

NASHUA, IOWA. — Special accommodations are being planned for honeymoon couples who are married in the Little Brown Church in the Vale, the historical small church which was made famous by a song written before it was built.
 Harry Richers of Worthington, Minn., has purchased the former Bradford academy property across the street from the church. He plans to erect honeymoon cabins on the property. A photographic studio to accommodate the newlyweds and facilities for wedding dinners and receptions also are planned.
 The church, built in 1864, long has been popular for wedding ceremonies. The peak was reached in 1940 when 1,540 couples were married.

The bride and bridesroom usually ring the church bell after the ceremony, the pastor admonishing them to "pull through life together, just as you are pulling on the bell rope."

The small seat church in a pleasant rustic setting once served the religious needs of two miles from here. The town died after it was bypassed by a railroad in 1869, but the song has kept the church alive.

Attracted by the beauty of the site upon which the church later was built, William S. Pitts, a young visitor, but they were without the promise of the successful Snake. And you have to be tough to fight the Snake and Hall's canyon.

The only time Lewis and Clark turned back during their famous expedition was when they tried to find passage through the canyon. A railroad man surveyed the possibilities of a line through the canyon years back and said, "Impossible. The Rockies were always steeper compared to that canyon."

The trip up Hall's canyon with McGrady is becoming one of the most annual tourist attractions of the United States, with many people journeying thousands of miles just to make the journey into one of the remote areas in the United States.

Overnight Journey.
 McGrady makes the trip twice each week — Wednesdays and Saturdays. He leaves at 6 a. m. and arrives at the lodge in time for a hearty supper. The return is made the next day. McGrady charges tourists approximately $14.50 per person for the trip, lodging and food.

Those who have seen Hall's canyon remember the awesome beauty and ruggedness that held Capt. Benjamin L. E. Bonneville spellbound in 1831 when he passed on the brink of a chasm overlooking the canyon and scrawled in his journal:

"Nothing we had ever gazed upon in any other region could for a moment compare in wild majesty and impressive sternness with the series of scenes where the Snake river is overhung by dark and stupendous rocks, dominated by immense mountains rearing their distant peaks in the clouds."

ARE SMALL TOWNS DYING?

"MACHINES displace labor in farming, new rural occupations will have to be created. Otherwise local population losses are inevitable!"

That's the thought-provoking challenge that the author of this book made, when prepared with care and properly seasoned, can be just as flavorful as the more expensive meats.

Do not try these veal riblets until they come from the breast of veal with the breast bone removed and the breast separated in 1/2 inches by cutting between the ribs.

Railroad Veal Riblets.
 (Serves 4 to 5)
 1/2 cup butter or drippings
 1/2 cup onion, chopped
 1/2 cup tomato, chopped
 1/2 cup brown sugar
 1/2 cup lemon juice
 1/2 cup catsup
 1/2 cup Worcestershire sauce
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon red pepper

Brown veal riblets on all sides in hot or dripping. Season with salt and pepper. Add chopped onion and catsup. Mix remaining ingredients and pour over riblets. Cook and simmer on top of range for 1 1/2 hours or until tender.

Ham slices need not prove an expensive meal especially if you are using leftover ham. The fact that you can prepare them with a fruit and stuffing helps extend the ham and makes it flavorful, too.

Fruit-Stuffed Ham Slices.
 (Serves 6)
 Have two ham slices cut 3/4 to 1/2 inch thick. Spread one slice with a thick layer of stuffing. Place the second slice on top; secure by sticking wooden toothpicks through one slice to the other. Spread surface of top ham slice with brown sugar or honey. Place on rack in roasting pan and roast in a slow (300 degrees) oven for 1 1/2 hours. Garnish with orange slices.

Fruit Stuffing.
 3 cups soft bread crumbs
 1 cup seedless raisins
 1/2 cup orange juice
 1/2 cup melted ham or bacon drippings
 4 tablespoons sugar
 Combine all ingredients. Mix lightly.

Old Fashioned Beef Stew.

Out veal ribs prepared in the same way as above, but with a hot skillet. Combine with bread crumbs; season with onion, salt and pepper. Place a spoonful on each piece of veal. Roll and fasten with wooden toothpicks. Brown in hot oil. Add rich milk and cook in a slow (300 degrees) oven until done.

Creole Kidney.
 (Serves 8)
 1 pound beef or lamb kidney
 Flour
 4 slices bacon or smoked jowl square
 2 small chopped onions
 Water
 1 chopped green pepper
 1 cup tomato juice
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper
 1/2 cup bay leaf
 1 tablespoon flour

Remove tubes from kidney and cut into 1/2 inch slices. Dredge with flour and brown in diced bacon. Combine kidneys and bacon. Add onions and green pepper. Stir until meat is well browned. Add tomato juice, salt, pepper and bay leaf. Cover closely and simmer for about 1 1/2 hours. Mix flour and water into a paste. Add small portions at a time to hot mixture to prevent lumping.

Farmers Produce Practically All Margarine Materials

Farmers in all but four of our 48 states—Maine, New Hampshire, Nevada and Rhode Island—now produce practically all the material that goes into our annual production of over six hundred million pounds of margarine.

In 1946, we produced 372,537,500 pounds of margarine in which we used 222,230,000 pounds of cotton seed oil; 206,718,000 pounds of soy bean oil; 1,194,000 pounds of peanut oil and 6,580,000 pounds of tallow.

In addition to this, margarine contains about 18 per cent cultured pasteurized skim milk, one to one and a half per cent of skim milk acid, three per cent of salt and one per cent vitamins and other ingredients, all of which are produced in the United States.—Adv.

Historic Church Plans Facilities For Newlyweds

MARSHIA, IOWA. — Local organizations are being planned for home-coming couples who are married in the Little Brown Church in the Vale. The historical, small church which was made famous by a song written before it was built. Harry Fishers of Worthington, Minn., has purchased the former Beardsley academy property across the street from the church. He plans to erect honeymoon cottages on the property. A photographic studio to accommodate the newlyweds and facilities for wedding dinners and receptions also are planned.

The church, built in 1864, long has been popular for wedding ceremonies. The peak was reached in 1940 when 1,540 couples were married.

The bride and bridegroom usually ring the church bell after the ceremony, the pastor administering them to "pull through life together, just as you are pulling on the bell rope."

The small neat church in a picturesque rustic setting once served the religious needs of old Beardsford, a town of 800 persons two miles from here. The town died after it was bypassed by a railroad in 1885, but the song has kept the church alive. Attracted by the beauty of the site upon which the church later was built, William S. Pitts, a young visitor from Wisconsin, wrote his moving hymn, "The Little Brown Church in the Vale" in 1887. He put his manuscript away and it was forgotten.

In 1934, when the church was completed, Pitts, who had returned to the town as a singing teacher, was asked to sing a solo at the dedication ceremony and he obliged with his own song written seven years before.

Wilderness Converted to Exotic Garden

MOBILE, ALA. — Once a tropical wilderness of magnolias, mosses, festooned oaks, hays and pines, the feasted-on Bellingrath gardens, 20 famous Bellingrath gardens, 20 miles south of Mobile on the Inland-Aux-Dies (Fowl) river today rank as one of the most popular meccas for flower lovers. The gardens, started as a hobby, draw as many as 10,000 persons in a single weekend. Stately live oaks which have stood for 500 years and 100-year-old azaleas make acres in the United States.

Overnight Journey

McGrady makes the trip twice each week — Wednesday and Saturdays. He leaves at 8 a. m. and arrives at the lodge in time for a hearty supper. The return is made the next day. McGrady charges tourists approximately $14.50 per person for the trip, lodging and food. Those who have seen Bell's canyon remember the awesome beauty and ruggedness that held Capt. Benjamin L. E. Bonnevillie spellbound in 1821 when he landed on the bank of a stream overlooking the canyon and scribbled in his journal: "Nothing we had ever gazed upon in any other region could for a moment compare in wild majesty and impressive sternness with the scenes of nature where the hoarse river is everhung by dark and stupendous rocks, dominated by immense mountains rearing their distant peaks in the clouds."

Creole Kidney.
Serves 6.
1 pound beef or lamb kidney
1 slice ham or smoked foot square
1 small chopped onion
Water
1 chopped green pepper
1 cup tomato juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Bit of bay leaf
1 tablespoon flour

Remove tubes from kidney and cut into 1/2 inch slices. Drainage with four and brown in deep pan. Add Cornish kidneys and bacon. Add onions and green pepper. Stir until moist is well browned. Add tomato juice, salt, pepper and bay leaf. Cover closely and simmer for about 1/2 hour. Mix flour and water into a paste. Add small portions at a time to hot mixture to prevent lumping. Yonkers a la Maryland.

Tongue
Water
1/2 cup butter or drippings
1/2 teaspoon salt
Bay leaf
1/2 cup brown sugar
1 1/2 cups canned or cooked cherries
1 cup liquid in which tongue was cooked
1/2 slice lemon

Wash tongue and cover with water. If using a fresh tongue, add 1 teaspoon salt. Cover and simmer unopened salt. Trim and remove skin. Place in a pan with the remaining ingredients. Let simmer until liquid thickens.

Vegetables should be as uniform in size as possible. If one vegetable takes a little longer to cook than another in the combination, add it sooner.

When vegetables are added to meat dishes, they should be added just long enough before the meat is done to cook them.

Good combinations of vegetables for meat dishes are as follows: Carrots, radishes, potatoes and peas; turnips or parsnips with celery and green peppers; lima beans with green beans and corn.

Large cuts of meats are often served the second or third day, sliced and swimming in barbecue sauce.

DPs Have Many Skills U.S. Needs

Useful Citizens Remain Idle In Displaced Person Camps

By BANKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON—It's a strange thing about us Americans who grew up under a Declaration of Independence which states that we're all born free and equal, and a Constitution which so scrupulously declares that "no title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of congress, accept any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever from any king, prince or foreign state."

Nevertheless, come election eve, somebody always gets very excited about the prospect of any prospective candidate for the office of president (or the office of dogcatcher, for that matter).

So I wasn't surprised to see a dispatch come over the wires saying that somebody, who says his grandfather was the brother of the grandfather of General Eisenhower, is in a displaced persons' camp in Denmark. Eisenhower, when questioned, says his ancestors came to America before the revolution and he has little or no information about the family in Europe. A good American answer, I'd say, if it serves to bring up the question of displaced persons in Europe, matter with which the congress

There are 66,000 DPs who are trained farm workers. Now, instead of producing food for others and easing the terrific strain on the American farms due to the shift in population, these DPs are eating at America's expense. I doubt if any American is hardhearted enough to say: "I am not my brother's keeper. Send 'em back where they came from . . . to strengthen the sinews of the Communist dictatorship and live out their lives in slavery . . . if they are allowed to live at all."

House Passes Tax Bill; Gandhi Is Assassinated

All signs pointed to an increase of one kind or another. It was as the house of representatives changed the bell for the opening round of crucial election-predictate on that much-belabored Joseph Martin (Rep., Me.), speaker of the house, started the off with the assertion that some tax slash is in the bag, conceded, however, that it might be provided in the Knutson bill, up for debate.

But in the end, he said, the publican congress would override presidential veto "of the tax bill presidential veto of the White House."

Pakistan Gandhi had been the man of strong spirit to whom all three opposing factions, Hindus, Moslems and Sikhs, had looked for guidance. And in his last fast, of five-day duration, he had given it to them. He had provided the three clashing religious groups with a foundation for peace. His action had tended to narrow the schism between Moslems and Hindus, had lessened the talk of war.

Whether his death would undo the good that the last days of his life had accomplished remained, for the time being, an open question.

Young Farmer Has Chance to Start

Knowledge and Training Essential for Success

More than the usual number of places are available for young men to get started in farming in 1948, according to Prof. C. A. Bratton of Cornell university. "Many farmers are ready to turn their farms over to young men, or are looking for a young man to work for wages on a profit-sharing basis."

Farming in the years ahead, according to Bratton, will provide a good living for the young man who is well trained, properly financed and located on good lands. Education and experience will be even more important for farming in the future than it has been in the past.

Starting farming in a period of inflated prices requires caution. Unusually high prices for livestock and machinery and high land values make it important to start without heavy indebtedness. Working as a

House Passes Tax Bill; Gandhi Is Assassinated

All signs pointed to an early cut of one kind or another from the house of representatives. It changed the lead for the coming round of crucial elections—on the basis on that much-battered and Joseph P. Martin (Rep., Mich.) speaker of the house, started them off with the assertion that such a tax slash is in the best interests of the country.

But in the end, he said, the public congress would override the presidential veto of the tax bill and send it to the White House.

In order to beat the veto that Truman might slap on the bill, however, the Republicans would have to line up a few Democratic votes on their side to make the necessary two-thirds majority. And, bringing enough Democrats around was thought, the senate Republicans would have the vote.

Rep. Robert Doughton (Rep., N. C.), ranking Democrat on appropriations committee, said the tax-cutting bill would mean a 10 percent reduction in the federal income tax.

As far as the question of the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi is concerned, the news is that the assassin, Nathuram Godse, was hanged in India.

Knowledge and Skill Essential for Success

More than the usual number of places are available for young men to get started in farming in 1952, according to Prof. C. A. Dratton of Cornell University. Many farmers are ready to turn their farms over to young men, or are looking for a youth-sharing basis.

Farming in the years ahead, according to Dratton, will provide a good living for the young man who is well trained, properly educated and located on good lands. Education and experience will be even more important for farming in the future than it has been in the past.

Starting farming in a period of inflated prices requires caution. Usually high prices for livestock and machinery and high land values make it important to start without a heavy indebtedness. Working as a hired man in a farm partnership or share renting are ways a young man with limited capital can become established without a heavy debt load.

What is Communism, as exemplified by members of the Communist party in the United States? Some say it is a religion. Well, if the writings of Karl Marx and Vladimir Lenin are the Communists, they are certainly as fanatically devoted to their creed, if not more familiar with it, as the members of the Communist party. They would undertake the same acts of the housewife! "The fact is that the women regarded themselves as we do," she said. "It is a set of rules, and if you don't obey these rules, your life is in danger. Communists don't believe in punishment in a future life. Their motto is 'do it now,' and they do it."

My attention has been directed recently to one paragraph in the Communist sacred and integrated into the international. It explains just what you can expect of Communism: any international body. Expect no more of them; no less. This is the paragraph:

"There can be no question of the utilization of bourgeois governmental institutions except for the purpose of their destruction."

Many explanations have been offered as to why a normal, natural-born American should embrace communism. The reasons range all the way up and down the scale, and include everything from a broken heart to some hidden neurosis that makes other people engrossing. Marketing Lighter Hogs Stretches Feed Supply
By marketing their hogs at just one pound lighter weight, hog men over the country could conserve about seven million bushels of grain, says Wisconsin College of Agriculture. Marketing hogs at lighter weights is one of the best ways to stretch the feed supply. Hogs marketed before they weigh 200-240 pounds usually require less feed to put on a pound of gain than hogs fed to heavier weight.

Interested in the farmers' problems... The campaign has had the personal interest and a great deal of the time of the Daily Journal's energetic publisher, George McLean. Two years ago, when McLean returned from war service with the navy, he remembered the troubled times on the farms after World War I and during the depression. He was aware that cotton again might bump up against a declining market. He knew too that mechanization was not far away, and that the small farmers would be at a disadvantage when machine production is fully established. McLean determined to make a careful study of the whole farm outlook as it affected the Tupelo region.

By the time the eight meetings had been concluded, the council had the groundwork well established for the first year's program. This covered three types of farming, which offered several different ways to increase farm income. To furnish adequate markets for new farm industry, better processing was undertaken in poultry and certain fruits and vegetables having a known customer demand.

January, November index 234 (November, 1946, 270); farm wage rates, October 421 (200); weekly average factory workers November 468 (428); wholesale prices, U.S., December 238 (254); urban consumer prices, U.S., November 228 (231) urban retail food prices, U.S., November 232 (243).

The New York farm products price indexes for the calendar year 1947 reflect many changes from 1946 in individual items, with the average of 254 for 1947 only one point higher than the 253 for 1946 when the dairy feed subsidies for milk were included the first six months.

The tendency for farm real estate prices to rise during an inflationary period is illustrated by the rise that has taken place since the beginning of the war, although this rise has been less in New York than in most states. On a percentage basis, the increase from the 1935 to 1939 period in values per acre has been greater in 45 states than it has in New York and less in only five states, all of them in the New England group.

Based on 1910-14 as 100, the indexes noted here are calculated from prices, wages and earnings reported to state and federal agricultural and labor agencies by numerous individuals and farms throughout New York and the United States. The New York agricultural price index is compiled at Cornell University from data reported to and compiled in the office of the agricultural statistician.

Economists Say 1948 Is A Year To Be Cautious

New York farmers need to be cautious in their farming operation this year and the years ahead, say economists of the College of Agriculture at Cornell University in a report...

Division Farm Products to Reported in 1948

Farm costs are expected to be higher in relation to prices received by farmers than in any recent year. This spread was narrowed considerably in 1947 and may continue this year.

Prices of feed grains are expected to continue high because of smaller national production. March, eastern livestock farmers also reported less grain in 1947 and also reported a larger-than-average proportion of their feed grains from a reduced national crop. It means that farmers will need either to (1) reduce the rate of grain feeding or (2) reduce the number of grain-consuming livestock.

The economists note that labor costs are likely to continue to increase in 1948. The labor supply may be somewhat more plentiful, though the Federal government has stopped its recruitment program. Fruit and vegetable growers using seasonal labor will need to plan well in advance of the time it is needed.

"Supplies of mixed fertilizer may be more plentiful this year, and their liberal use is good business. Machinery may advance in price, but it will be good business for farmers to substitute machinery for labor as a way to cut costs. Lumber and most building materials will probably be more plentiful, and preference in building or remodeling should be given to things that improve efficiency of operation. But take good care of roofs, sills, foundations and chimneys," they warn.

HEALTH PLAN IS VOTED DOWN 16-13 BY SUPERVISORS

In one of the most important recent years, four of...

Mark, Hill, Kelling, Mohanbacher, Weaver and Young, Farmer, D. W. Moore, Alford, Elmer, G. W. Gifford, MacDonald, Miller, Morrison, Myers, Jones, Southman, Thompson, Voss and Williams. The vote was 16-13 when the plan was adopted by a vote of 14 to 14. Clerk...

Other speakers favoring the plan included Paul Davis, Dr. E. F. Comstock and Humphrey. Stevens of Wellsville, Dr. Dorothy Gray of Wellsville and Supervisor R. J. Redford of Andover. These speakers felt the county's health program would be enhanced by adoption of the plan even if it did cost a little more in taxes, a service that would grow with coming years; the health department would extend to every settlement, large and small, and would be more widespread than under the plan of 33 health districts at the present.

The opposition speakers heard were Supervisor Hugh D. Chamberlain of Canadese and Supervisor Richard E. Hall of Belmont. Mr. Chamberlain quoted Section 19 of the Public Health Law under which hospitals might claim 50 per cent state aid. This argument was refuted by County Judge Hopkins who said how the State Department of Health and Control had ruled as illegal any appropriations by the county of funds to help privately-owned hospitals. Mr. Hall quoted state officials addressing highway officials, as stating that state aid for the many projects for which it is sought is likely to fail in the not too-distant future.

The one dozen village, town and city organizations which had advised the board they favored the proposed department, and the six Legion Posts also favoring it were present at the meeting.

When resolutions were read from two New York State counties suggesting two cents per gallon, increased tax on motor fuel, and increased taxation on mortgages, sales contracts, etc. Chairman Francis M. Alvord urged members to study the question of sales taxes seriously. The question was becoming acute as the situation was becoming serious and growing worse.

Designation of county funds deposited for three years were made by the State Bank of Wellsville to $250,000—State Bank of Wellsville to $200,000—Citizens National Bank, Wellsville, and up to $200,000 First Trust Company, Wellsville.

MT. MORRIS DAM TO BE ERECTED IN EARLY SPRING

The office of the Chief of Army Engineers at Washington has approved the award of a $30,204,200 contract for the construction of the Mount Morris dam to a combine of five contractors, whose bid was low.

These contractors are the Arundel Corporation, Baltimore; J. C. MacGuire, Los Angeles; L. E. Dixon Company, Los Angeles; Floyd Shodner, N. J. Gordon and Dale Hinman, Los Angeles, and the Humkin-Conkley Construction Company, Cleveland.

The contract covers all the work on the dam proper and is a "continuing" contract.

Col. Herbert D. Vogel, district U. S. engineer, says the contract is the largest lump-sum award ever made in that region. Louis Spector, chief of the legal branch of the engineers, says he believes it is exceeded only by some of the wartime cost-plus contracts.

At the same time the engineers...

the dam site. Add it is expected that dirt roads leading to the site would be improved by the time actual work is begun, so sightseers will be able to look down from a 300-foot height at the dam job.

Visitors probably never will get closer than 300 feet to most of the workmen, either. It's a 200-foot climb down the west gorge bank (and 410 steps down the west bank) so workmen will make only one trip daily. Their equipment will be in the base of the gorge.

A field office has been constructed on the Highlands, and another shed has been erected to house tools and equipment.

INCREASED AID FOR CO. SCHOOLS FIRST QUARTER

Parents and others concerned over inadequate funds for education in Allegany county and all purposes in Allegany county and taxpayers fearing higher payments on real estate to help with teachers' salaries will find cheer upon learning that state funds totaling more than $85,000 over the sum for the first quarter of the 1947-48 school year are being distributed by County Treasurer Frank L. Gere.

It is disclosed that distribution to central and common schools for the first quarter of the 1947-48 school year, as compared with $246,768 for the same period one year ago. This means $85,249.41 more for the present quarter than last year, divided as follows: $44,516 in additional state aid and $40,735.41 more available, the latter as an emergency teachers' salary fund. In this county the $40,735 has not yet been allocated to schools by district superintendents.

Farmers' Prices Are Down But Costs Continue to Gain

Prices paid to producers of farm products in New York State dropped two index points in December as compared with November, while production expenses went more advanced, says a Federal-State report issued from the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

The report shows the price index for farm products in December, 1947, was 117.1, down from 119.1 in November. It is 17 points or seven per cent higher than a year earlier.

Representative price relatives for December, 1947, compared with December, 1946, in parentheses follow: Milk cows 207 (200); lamb 251 (200); hogs 237 (202); corn 228 (182); beef cattle 216 (201); beans 209 (201); buckwheat 208 (200); wheat 208 (212); veal calves 201 (233); apples 229 (223); oats 205 (174); potatoes 238 (182); barley 245 (187); chickens 226 (202); butter 247 (244); wool 244 (202).

Economists Say 1948 Is A Year To Be Cautious

New York farmers need to be cautious in their farming operation this year and the years ahead, say economists at the College of Agriculture at Cornell University in appraising the 1947 agricultural outlook.

"Prices of farm products are high and are not expected to continue at those levels indefinitely. They may not decline in 1948, but net incomes of farmers will probably not be so high as in 1947 because farming costs have risen and are still rising," the economists report.

They note that under the present agricultural price-support, prices of many farm products may be supported by government at 90 per cent of parity until the end of 1948. Prices of fruit and vegetables, except potatoes and dry beans, however, are not included. This year, they note, will not prevent inflation but it may slow down the rate of price decline. Continuation of wide differences between prices of included the 1947 and 1948 crop. The proportion of their land growing in reduced national crop. It is estimated that farmers will need about 150,000 bushels of grain to feed their 12 million head of cattle, horses and poultry. The economists note that balance of trade is in surplus for the first time in 1947. The labor market may be somewhat more plentiful than in 1946. The Federal Government has stepped its investment program for fruit and vegetable growers, which seasonal labor will need to plant seed in advance of the time it is needed. Supplies of mixed fertilizer may be more plentiful this year, and their liberal use is a good business. It will be good business for farmers to substitute machinery for labor as a way to cut costs. Lumber and most building materials will probably be more plentiful and therefore given to things that are most efficient of operation. But take good care of rock, silts, foundations and chimneys," they warn.

HEALTH PLAN IS VOTED DOWN 16-13 BY SUPERVISORS

In one of the most important decisions of recent years, full of tension, the Board of Supervisors Tuesday afternoon last voted down 16 to 13, the establishment of a proposed County Health Department before more than 50 representative citizens of the county, many of them physicians from Wellsville, Friendship, Cuba and Belfast.

The action came after some eleven months of planning for the health of the children, the youth and those of older years, made by County Judge Ward M. Hopkins of Cuba and Supervisors Frank W. Williams of Wellsville, as well as those from physicians and citizens present.

Voting against the plan were these members: Messrs. Glenn, John E. Baker, Barber, Chambers, Hall, Fenner, Green, Hall, Hancock, and Joseph P. C. C. The plan was proposed by the health department of the county, which had been organized under the leadership of County Judge Hopkins. The plan was approved by the Board of Supervisors on Tuesday afternoon last. The plan was approved by a vote of 16 to 13. The plan was approved by a vote of 16 to 13.

MT. MORRIS DAM TO BE ERECTED IN EARLY SPRING

The office of the Chief of Army Engineers at Washington has approved the award of a $23,704,200 contract for the construction of the Mount Morris dam to a combine of Mount Morris and Dale Hinson, Los Angeles, and the Hunkin-Corley Construction Company, Cleveland.

The contract covers all the work on the dam proper and is a "contingent" contract.

Cut Herbert D. Vogel, district engineer, says the contract is the largest lump-sum award ever made in that region. Louis Speiser, chief of the legal branch of the engineers, says he believes it is exceeded only by some of the wartime cost-plus contracts.

At the same time, the engineers disclosed for the first time that the Federal government plans to turn over to the Genesee State Park Commission for development as an adjunct to Letchworth State Park, practically all of the area purchased for construction of the dam—2,800 acres.

With additional ground now being purchased by the state, the park will eventually expand from its present 19,000 acres.

This project will be a sidewalk engineer's paradise. Construction of the huge dam will get under way early this spring, but when it does the GOOSE (Grand Order of Sidewalk Engineers) is all set.

A large parking area has already been designed on the west bank of the Genesee River, high above

INCREASED AID FOR CO. SCHOOLS FIRST QUARTER

Parents and others concerned over inadequate funds for education in Allegany county and taxpayers bearing higher payments are cheering higher payments to be made to help with teachers' salaries. Funds totaling more than that state, made available for the 1947-48 school year by the state, were distributed by County Treasurer Frank L. Geve.

It is disclosed that $222,637.41 was made available for distribution to county and common schools for the first quarter of the 1947-48 school year, as compared with $248,730 for the same period one year ago. This means $26,092.59 less, divided as follows: $44,516 in additional state aid and $40,730.41 more available, the latter as an emergency fund. In this county, the total of $248,730 has not yet been allocated to schools by district superintendents.

In Supervisory District 1, $20,570 goes to Fillmore Central School, $17,718 to Rushford Central School and $245 to Centerville District 1. Central schools in the Second District will receive these sums: Belmont, $14,400; Belfast, $14,200; Cuba, $26,260; Friendship, $10,000; Common School District 2, Friendship, will receive $290, and No. 4, New Hudson, $50.

Central schools in the Fourth District will be paid these sums: Andrews, $18,555; Alfred-Almond, $27,355; Angolia, $15,529; Camasaga, $17,198; Andrews common school, in District 1 got $282; Districts 4 and 5, Richfield, a total of $223; District 3, West Almond, $223.

The share of the Wellsville High School was $20,044, the largest sum going to any school in the county.

production expenses since those advanced last year a Federal-State report issued from the New York State Department of Agriculture and Markets.

The individual prices of the December, 1947, were paid to farmers at 211. It is 17 points or seven per cent higher than a year earlier.

Representative price relatives for December, 1947, with December, 1946, in parentheses follows: Milk 227 (202); corn 228 (182); beef cattle 314 (281); beans 308 (303); buckwheat 300 (280); wheat 309 (212); veal calves 291 (223); apples 281 (284); oats 268 (174); potatoes 258 (185); barley 240 (187); chickens 230 (235); butter 247 (244); wool 205 (205); eggs 204 (187); sheep 198 (184); hay 168 (194); milk, November 238 (281).

Food prices and other expense items continued to advance, as did the general price level, although the diversity of rate of movement was far from uniform. Costs in dairy business of farmers will probably not be so high as in 1947 because burning coals have risen and are still rising, the economists report.

They note that under the present agricultural price-support, prices of many farm products may be supported by government at 80 per cent of parity until the end of 1948. Prices of fruit and vegetables, except potatoes and dry beans, however, are not included.

This program, they say, will not prevent deflation but it may slow down the rate of price decline. Continuation of wide differences between prices of individual citizens of the county, Welloville, of their physicians from Welloville, Friendship, Cuba and Belfast.

The action came after some eloquent pleas for the health of the children; the youth and those in other years, made by County Judge Ward M. Hopkins of Cuba and Supervisors Frank W. Williams, Cuba, and Richard J. Embler, Welloville, as well as those from physicians and citizens present.

Voting against the plan were these members: James C. Lee, Cuba; and Paul Baker, Barber, Chapin, and Paul Fenner, Green, Hall, Hanchett, and did not take their stand because of anything against the hospital. They felt these hospitals could be maintained without the need of enacting independent action by the county. But the hospitals could be maintained by direct action without enacting a larger burden of taxes.

It was unanimously voted to ask the state legislature to fix the salary of this county's county judge and county clerk at $6,000 per year and the present $4,000 which has not been changed for many years. The state legislature has practically all of the area purchased for construction of the dam—3,900 acres.

With additional ground now being purchased by the state, the park will eventually expand from its present 1794 acres to 14,000 acres.

This project will be a sidewalk engineer's paradise. Construction of the huge dam will get under way early this spring, but when it does the GORGE (Grand Order of Sidewalk Engineers) is all set.

Mix Lemon Juice AT HOME TO RELIEVE RHEUMATIC PAINS

Money back—if this recipe fails

Many of the thousands of folks who have been taking lemon juice for rheumatic pains have found relief by adding very insignificant quantities of salicin to one teaspoonful of lemon juice in a glass of water. They get faster relief for the acute joint pains caused by the gritty phases of rheumatism, neuritis and lumbago. Always use a good quality prescription made just to relieve such symptoms. Costs little in drugstore.

TEN PRISONERS ARE ARRAIGNED 4 "NOT GUILTY"

Four pleas of "not guilty" were entered before Judge Ward M. Hopkins in County Court arraignments received before Judge Ward M. Hopkins in the February term. The most important of the charges likely to come to trial at that time is an indictment for manslaughter, second degree, against Charles R. Joyce, 18, of Andover RD 2, accused of culpable negligence in the death of a shotgun in a fatal hunting accident at Halesport November 22, resulting in the death of Myrtle R. Basely of Niagara Falls. Joyce was in court, with attorneys, and pleaded as above stated.

Many Driver Permits Suspended Because of Delinquency in Filing of Accident Reports

Reports by licensed operators leads to many suspensions which could be avoided. Motor Vehicle Commissioner Clifford J. Fletcher declares. "The law requires 'immediate' reporting of all accidents in which there is personal injury or in which there is damage of more than $25 to any one person," he explains.

"The primary responsibility for filing a written report with the commissioner of motor vehicles rests on the drivers involved in accidents," he says. "Owners and others involved have a secondary responsibility for filing the reports, when they are physically unable to report."

Alfred Institute Launches New Work System

A change in the educational program at the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred will occur at the beginning of the second semester. The new program is designated as the B plan and is designed to give students practical experience while they are still going to school. Students will attend classes from September until April for two years and will work in some business of industry related to their course of study for the summer months. The third year of their course will run from September until February when they will receive their diploma from the institute.

The B plan is voluntary unless a student has had no experience in his field before coming to school. Then the A plan is compulsory. A student attending classes for two years, one month each year, will also be given the A plan. The Ag-Tech Institute followed the B plan for several years before the war, and it was very satisfactory in the agricultural courses. For the time being only the agricultural department of the school will follow the B plan, but the industrial department is working out a similar plan to be used in the near future.

The primary responsibility will rest with the driver involved in the accident, but the operator is physically unable to file a report.

While the law requires "immediate" reports of motor vehicle accidents, the Motor Bureau grants a grace period of ten days so that those involved have ample time in which to make complete reports.

The reports must be made direct to the Motor Vehicle Bureau in Albany, Commissioner Yelder says.

The Motor Vehicle Bureau currently receives about 50,000 accident reports each month, but from 30 to 40 per cent are sent in so tardily that no many cases action has already started or even completed.

Under the new law, reports are required to be filed before suspension hearings are held.

A DOGS PRAYER
To you, my master, I offer my prayer, lying here at your feet with my adoring eyes watching your face.
Feed me and give me a drink of clean water each day. Provide me a shelter with a little clean straw where I can rest. Comfortable against snow and cold winds. Talk to me, for your voice and the touch of your kindly hand on my head mean much to me. Never beat or kick me when I do not understand you. And when I am sick care for me with patient thoughtfulness.
I am only your dog, but in me and my appearance you are reflected. If I am starved and bony, sore-eyed, scurrying and shivering, the world knows you as untrustworthy, selfish and heartless.
This, my master, is little to ask for a companion who would lay down his life to protect you.

The FICTION Corner

IT'S THE LAW

By CLARETTE LINDRUM

MY HEAD was in the clouds that warm day in April driving on Broadway. The radio in my lobby was tuned to an Tom O'Neill, my favorite voice of the year. I was listening to "The Singing Bird" when the sharp blast of a whistle brought me down in this bit, but not earth.
I'd driven straight through a red light.
As a big, burly traffic cop swung around over to my battered coupe, my knees shook. I had a deep respect for law and order.
"What's the big idea, sister?" he bellowed.
"I'm sorry, officer. I said meekly.
"I was late for school."
"Better be late than sorry," he said in an altogether different voice as he caught O'Neill's lush rendition of "Irresistible You." He jerked his head and smiled at the radio. "You know, that guy's not bad."
"He's simply super," I gurgled.
"He makes me all goose-pimply."
The blue eyes of the law flickered, then fell on the volume of Popular Melodias on the seat beside me.
"Mince! What do you do for a living?"
"Piano teacher," I replied, "at Miss Faldens Day School." I gave him a wan smile.
He pushed back his cap and wiped the moist, blond ringlets plastered to his brow. "Ever do any radio work?"
That made me wince. "I just wish I had a dollar for every audition I've had."
"Pull over," he ordered.
I obeyed with alacrity. At the curb I became voluble. Anything to stave off a ticket. I told him that radio was a snare and delusion for any ambitious young girl. I'd got nowhere. "Sorry, we have our own staff accompanist. . . . Sorry, nothing right now, but if you'll leave your name—"

Next morning I wore my new Easter bonnet, a pink, flyaway confection. On my radio O'Neill was giving delightfully with "Time Waits for No One." My heart went boom as I approached the crossing on Broadway. There stood my nice giant in a shaft of sunlight. I drove straight through the red light. At the blast of that tin whistle I jammed on the brake. He sauntered over, twirling his shiny toy.
"Well, sister," he said sternly, "if you're gonna make it a habit, I have to take steps. Let's see your license."
I looked at him in sheer dismay.
O'Neill went crooning on, but my traffic cop seemed deaf this morning. "Make it snappy." So I fumbled in my imitation alligator bag and shut, which read, "The Singing Cop." "Nobody knows about it except the gang here. I told 'em it had to be that way, or else. If the boys down at the station knew I was a swearing canary, life wouldn't be worth livin'."

I sat still, looking slightly ga-ga.
"Say," he said, his eyes twinkling,
"that's a fine reception, considering that I snagged you a radio job."
"Yes, did?" I gasped. "But Mr.
Burnham said—"
He waved his big hand at me. "I know. When I heard about Miss Miles, I asked him to give you a tryout." He looked up at the clock.
"Okay, beautiful. Let's try that old number. 'Why Don't You Fall in Love with Me?'"

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

- Keep the family sewing machine covered when it is not in use to protect it from dust.
- Fold a dishcloth twice to form a square, then crochet a simple edge around it with bright thread. (Fret-to)-a washable pot-holder or a cheery table mat.
- When disconnecting electrical appliances from outlets, do not pull on the cord. Grasp the plug itself firmly and pull it free.
- To cut up raisins for baking, use a pair of old scissors which have been dipped in hot water.
- When planning to add a room to the house, don't change the location of the bathroom unless you want to get into the expense of moving extensive plumbing. Another thing to watch is the building line. It's so easy to encroach upon your neighbor's property if you are not careful.

Setting a Quarrel

An unusual custom prevails among the Apsa Taxis, a tribe of 20,000 living in an isolated section of the Himalayas. When two men are engaged in a personal quarrel, such as over a debt or a woman, they are allowed to kidnap members of each other's family and imprison them in a private stockade until a settlement is reached.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expectorate mucus, and soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to send you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis promptly becomes a great pain to the end of the throat, in large doses, and when the patient is in bed, the doctor is called. In some cases, the patient is given a bottle of Calox to rub in the way it is prescribed. The patient is usually cured in the first or second day.

Relief for N. Y. Housing Shortage

One of the largest developments of new homes in the United States is currently being established by Lewis & Stone, Inc., on land formerly used for growing potatoes, south of Hammonds-ton.

The Lewis, who claim to be operating as the Lewis in the new project, began in 1934, and so far have completed some 2,000 homes. Recent announcements of the project, however, call for the development to grow to 3,500 homes.
 In the future, many of them to be built by 1938, to help relieve the housing shortage.

As a result, the new York Telephone Company, which has served the new residents through the Hammonds-ton exchange, now plans a new central office to serve about 2,500 subscribers in Island Trees and adjacent localities.
 Speedy installation of this office, to be opened late this spring or early summer, is made possible by procurement of a switchboard from the Illinois Bell

Right: At Albany headquarters of New York State Market News Service, where teletype telephones and radio reports to the public. Above: Great War-torn fruit and vegetable market in New York City, busiest during week hours of morning.

A few decades ago when it took days for news of the state to reach the public and distribution to many of the people.

When the Market News Service was organized in 1919, it was one of the first to use radio, also one of the first to use teletype. The first broadcast of its reports by radio took place over Station WJZ in New York City, on January 23, 1922, a short time after the agency station was established. At that time, telephones have been increasingly used in the distribution of produce. Through the cooperation of the state market news service, which has been organized to serve the interests of the state market news service, this service has been increased by the frequent use of telephones.

In a recent arrangement, using telephones to contact with the market news service, which has been the result of the increase in the use of telephones in the state.

Rapid Expansion of Facilities. Increased Volume of Traffic. Reported by Company

In a year of record-breaking activity in the State-wide territory, the New York Telephone Company in 1947 installed more telephones and central offices than ever before, and handled an average of 29 million calls a day, according to Carl Whitmore, president of the company. In his recent report, the company was serving more than 4,500,000 telephones as the end of 1947. Although new installations were made in every part of the State, the greatest gains were made in the Albany and Binghamton areas.
